

Law for Status Correction in the UAE

Law for Status Correction in the UAE

The Law for Status Correction in the UAE aims to provide violators of residency and immigration regulations an opportunity to regularize their legal status within the country. The Federal Authority for Identity, Citizenship, Customs, and Port Security supervises these initiatives and periodically announces grace periods for status correction.

---

Key Information About the Law for Status Correction

1. Grace Period

- In 2024, the Federal Authority announced a grace period for violators to correct their status, starting from September 1 and ending on December 31, 2024.
- During this period, violators were exempt from fines and administrative restrictions.
- Source: WAM - Emirates News Agency (<https://www.wam.ae/article/b5ykr9m>)

2. Beneficiaries

- Individuals violating visa and residency regulations.
- Persons listed in administrative reports or those who had discontinued their employment.
- Foreign-born children whose residency was not regularized within 4 months of birth.

3. Options for Correction

- Leaving the UAE:

- Violators may leave the country without paying accumulated fines.

- Adjusting Residency:

- Obtaining a new employment contract and modifying residency status to stay and work legally in the UAE.

4. Required Procedures

- Submission of:

- Copies of the sponsor's passport and residency visa.

- Copies of the canceled entry permit, previous residency visa, and new entry permit.

- Payment of a status adjustment fee of AED 500, along with knowledge and innovation fees.

- Source: GDRFA Dubai - Status Amendment Procedures

(<https://www.gdrfad.gov.ae/ar/services/63c69432-585e-11ea-0320-0050569629e8>)

5. Relevant Authorities

- The Federal Authority for Identity, Citizenship, Customs, and Port Security.

- Happiness Centers and AMER Service Centers in Dubai.

---

Important Notes

1. Post-Grace Period Penalties:

- Once the grace period ends, fines and penalties are imposed on violators who have not corrected their status.

2. Intensified Inspections:

- Authorities ramp up inspections to identify violators after the grace period ends.

---

Conclusion

The Law for Status Correction provides a vital opportunity for individuals to regularize their legal status in the UAE, promoting compliance with residency and immigration laws. For updates, follow official announcements from the Federal Authority for Identity, Citizenship, Customs, and Port Security.

---

Sources

1. WAM - Emirates News Agency (<https://www.wam.ae/article/b5ykr9m>)
2. GDRFA Dubai - Status Amendment Procedures (<https://www.gdrfad.gov.ae/ar/services/63c69432-585e-11ea-0320-0050569629e8>)